

Post-Geographic Hallel: Rosh Hodesh Iyar

* Havurat Shalom of Somerville, MA ("the Hav"), and the National Havurah Committee are hosting an online participatory Hallel service for Rosh Hodesh Iyar

* When: Friday, April 24 starting at 11:15 am EDT, 8:15 am PDT. We are planning to finish within an hour or so.

* Register on Zoom to participate in this call at <<https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tJwudeqoqTwoGdQOAGbsjaC9V-me7GLkI94e>>

* We aim to do a modified version of "rooftop style" davening, where different participants lead different parts of the service (with one back-up navigator).

* Some psalms have multiple leaders: for example Psalm 118 is broken into different components below. One part of Psalm 116 will be repeated w/ a different

* To avoid a time-lag and overstimulation, we'll ask participants to mute themselves.

* Service-leaders will be using Havurat Shalom's adapted, egalitarian Hallel liturgy, which is available at <<https://tinyurl.com/ycqgs2fq>>.

* Participants are invited to follow along using the Hav's Hallel. Or you may use a Hallel text that you are more familiar with.

* We will periodically post what Psalm and line we're singing in the chat window so folks can follow along.

Please sign up for one or two slots:
