

Post-Geographic Hallel: Rosh Hodesh Sivan

* Tikkun Leil Shabbat (TLS) of Washington DC and the National Havurah Committee (NHC) are hosting an online participatory Hallel

 When: Sunday, May 24, starting at 11 am EDT, 8 am PDT. We will finish no later than 1pm EDT

* Register on Zoom to participate in this call here

* We aim to do a modified version of "rooftop style" davening, where different participants lead different parts of the service (with

* Some psalms have multiple leaders: for example Psalm 118 is broken into different components below.

* To avoid a time-lag and overstimulation, we'll ask participants to mute themselves.

* A Hebrew/English online version of Hallel is at <https://www.sefaria.org/Hallel.1?lang=bi>.

* A transliterated version is at: <https://static1.squarespace.com/static/58e7b777ff7c5020c21065c6/t/59fd02ae0d929758eae7ce95/150975359147>

* Service leaders are also welcome to use Havurat Shalom's adapted, egalitarian Hallel liturgy, which is available at <https://tinyurl.com/ycqgs2fq>

 Also- if you've led one, give other folks a chance to lead one, please; we are hoping to have a lot of folks on this!

* Mourners' Kaddish can be found at: <https://reformjudaism.org/sites/default/files/MournersKaddishBlessing.pdf>

* Since people can use their own siddur, we will not announce pages, but we will periodically post what Psalm and line we're singing

* After the service is over, we will open it up to more settings of parts of Hallel or other songs in any language that seem in the spirit

el for Rosh Hodesh Sivan (the min
